Dear Rene:

Your letter with enclosures about the work of the European League for Economic Cooperation came to my desk while I was abroad and I have only now had time to write you this note of thanks.

The League seems to me to be doing a fine job and I hope that there will soon be further indications of progress along the lines it advocates.

M. Speak is in this country at the moment, as you knew, and I hope to have a chance to talk with him before he leaves.

My best regards to you.

Faithfully,

Allen W. Dulles

My dear Allen,

You asked me to keep you informed of the work the European League of Economic Cooperation is doing.

In that respect, I am sending you copies of the resolutions that were unanimously accepted at the Conference held here, in Brussels, during three days at the end of May/beginning of June, and at which were present the Representatives of the Dominions and of all the European countries members of ELEC.

Included also speeches made by Mr. P.H. Spaak, Mr. Harold Mac Millan, Mr. Paul van Zeeland and - you will have to read it - myself.

May I draw your attention to the general resolution and especially to the paragraphe pertaining to the wish and the will of those Representatives of the Dominions, insisting on the necessity for the United Kingdom to cooperate with Europe.

Yours sincerely,

Mr. Allen DULLES,
